TUESDAY

Red Tails* Movie Screenings

TOMORROW! Tuesday, April 2
2:30 p.m. at the Dole Institute, Simons Media Room
7:00 p.m. at the Kansas Union, Centennial Room

FREE movie snacks provided!

Check out the movie, Red Tails, this week in preparation of a great program next week presented by the Dole Institute and KU Libraries, "The Tuskegee Airmen: Red Tails Examined by Kevin Willmott." Next week, Willmott will look at the role of African American World War II soldiers through the film lens and will critically examine the historical and racial significance of the Tuskegee Airmen in the film, Red Tails. The program with Kevin Willmott is Tuesday, April 9 at 7:30 p.m. at the Dole Institute.

Red Tails is a 2012 American war film produced by Lucasfilm and released by 20th Century Fox. The film is a fictionalized portrayal of the Tuskegee Airmen, a group of African-American United States Army Air Forces (USAAF) servicemen during World War II.

WEDNESDAY

U.S. Engagement: Political-Military Affairs

with Spring 2013 Fellow, Brigadier General
Roosevelt Barfield

FINAL WEEK! Wednesday, April 3 at 4:00 PM

This week's study group will include discussions on how the President of the United States should address congressional concerns, whether the war should end earlier than 2014, and what future engagement in Afghanistan entails. It will end with a proposal for an Afghanistan Engagement Strategy. Currently, the war is scheduled to conclude at the end of 2014, and the Senate has passed a resolution and a budget for 2013 that calls for a quicker end. General Barfield will also wrap up the discussions of the previous six sessions.

Fort Leavenworth Series

At Home & Abroad: Selected Topics in World War II

"Playing Mind Games: Tactical PsyOp in WWII"

with Dr. Joseph R. Fischer

Thursday, April 4 at 3:00 p.m.

This series occurs the first Thursday of the month through November 7.

Nerd Nite No. 16

Cults, Clubs & Secret Signals

"Deprogramming America: Bob Dole and the Anti-Cult Movement of the 1970s"

Wednesday, April 10 at 8:00 p.m.

Pachamama's, Alton Ballroom

Doors open at 7:00 p.m.

Although you could argue that politics is similarly dogmatic, Bob Dole - former presidential candidate, Senate Republican Leader, war veteran, and native Kansan – isn't typically associated with cult activity. Yet in the 1970s, the Senator found it necessary to address the "cult phenomenon" at the highest levels of government. We'll explore his activities – and those of infamous cults of the day – using archival collections found in the Dole Archives and Spencer Research Library.

Audrey Coleman, the Senior Archivist at the Dole Institute of Politics, loves Kansas and Kansans (and other places and people too – but they have to try harder). A newly-minted mom of two, this represents one of her first attempts to think on an adult level for an extended period of time.
