Men's Basketball European Tour

The KU men's basketball team is heading to Switzerland and France this August! Travel packages are currently available now through Anthony Travel. KU will be playing the Swiss National Team, which is currently one of the best National Teams not in the Olympics. The Jayhawks will also play against French professional teams. As part of the alumni travel group, you will get to watch 2012 Olympic basketball games together, including the Gold Medal game, which is perfectly timed right before KU's final game in Paris.

Book your Rock Chalk European Tour today!
