Dr. James Naismith Is

Honored at Springfield

Dr. James Naismith, professor of physical education at the University of Kansas, has just returned from Springfield, Mass., where he was honored at commencement by presentatoin of the "Tarbell Medal" for his "distinguished services to his alma mater" by the invention of the game of basketball.

Dr. Naismith is among the first to be honored with this medallion. which is to be presented to others in coming years. The design illustrates "The Joy of Effort," and McKenzie, who was a classmate was made by the sculptor, R. Tait and roommate of Dr. Naismith, and an associate in gymnasium work at the Y.M.C.A. college.
