| Nocturne, | Mendelssohn Orchestra. |
| Invocation, | REV. E. A. EDWARDS |
| Hymn of Praise—Opening Chorus, | Mendelssohn Chorus and Orchestra. |
| Scripture Reading, | REV. F. M. BENNETT |
| Hymn, | Beecher |

Love divine, all love excelling,
Joy of heav'n, to earth come down!
Fix in us thy humble dwelling,
All thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesus! thou art all compassion,
Pure, unbounded love thou art;
Visit us with thy salvation,
Enter ev'ry trembling heart.

Breathe, O breathe thy loving Spirit
Into every troubled breast.
Let us all in thee inherit,
Let us find the promised rest;
Take away the love of sinning;
Alpha and Omega be;
End of faith, as its beginning!
Set our hearts at liberty.

Come, Almighty, to deliver,
Let us all thy life receive!
Speedily return, and never,
Never more thy temples leave!
Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve thee as thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise thee without ceasing,
Glory in thy perfect love.

Finish then thy new creation,
Pure, unspotted may we be;
Let us see our whole salvation,
Perfectly secured by thee!
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place;
Till we cast our crowns before thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

Prayer, REV. N. S. ELDERKIN

Solo and Chorus from the "Hymn of Praise," . . . Mendelssohn

Solo. "Sing ye praise," Professor Hubach.

Chorus. "All ye that cried unto the Lord."

Baccalaureate Sermon, . . EDWARD ALFRED STEINER, B. D.
Professor of Applied Christianity in Grinnell College

Hymn, Eventide

Abide with me! fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens—Lord, with me abide!
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O thou who changest not, abide with me.

I need thy presence every passing hour;
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me.

I fear no foe, with thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if thou abide with me.

Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

Benediction, REV. C. L. MILTON

Coronation March, Kretschmer
Orchestra.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

TICKETS.

Each graduating student is entitled to two tickets to the Commencement exercises, and to one to the University dinner. These will be given out on Tuesday at the Information Bureau, main corridor of Fraser Hall. Extra tickets to the dinner—if any remain—can be obtained at the University secretary's office, room 109, Fraser Hall, at $1 each.

Alumni may obtain tickets for themselves and friends to the Commencement exercises upon registration at Alumni headquarters in room 116, Fraser Hall, after 9 A. M. on Tuesday. These Commencement tickets will secure admission to the first floor of the auditorium, where seats will be reserved for a limited time. Others than those mentioned above will be admitted to Commencement exercises so long as any seats, not reserved, remain. Last year all who came were accommodated.

Tickets to the University dinner will also be given out free to Alumni, but only to those who apply in person at Alumni headquarters.

Former students not graduates may obtain tickets to the Commencement exercises upon application at Alumni headquarters.

Former students and others may obtain tickets for the University dinner—if any remain—at the office of the University secretary; price $1.

Faculty members are entitled to two tickets each to Commencement exercises, and to one to the University dinner. They may secure their tickets at the registrar's office on Tuesday.

Those who find difficulty in obtaining their tickets may apply for further information at the Information Bureau up to the time of the University dinner.

INFORMATION BUREAU.

There will be a general Information Bureau at the check stand in the main corridor of Fraser Hall. A card index of visitors will be kept here, and it will thus be possible to know who is on the grounds and to give the Lawrence address of all visitors. Guests will confer a great favor by registering promptly.
