Thayer Collection of Objects of Art

Administration Building, Third Floor.

The following objects selected from over ten thousand in the Thayer Collection will be on exhibition during Commencement Week.

Thirty paintings—including examples of Geo. Innes, Winslow Homer, J. F. Murphy, Gardner Symonds, Emil Carlson, Homer Martin, Richard Miller, Robert-Henri, Paul Dougherty, Anna Roberg, Theo. Robinson, Haley Lever, Geo. E. Brown, Mesdag, Israels and Sorolla.

Cases of Cameo Glass, Japanese Sword Guards, Jade Carvings, Chinese Snuff Bottles, Gold and Silver Luster Ware, Pewter, Laquer, Korean Pottery, Chinese Pottery Japanese Swords, Bronze Castings, Chinese Enamels, Oil Lamps and Candle Sticks.

A Chinese Tapestry of the Ming Period, over 500 years old, woven in silk and telling the story of the coming of the dragon to China.

When rooms are provided in the new building now under construction the large collection of textiles, Japanese and Chinese paintings and prints, English, French, and American ceramics, Indian blankets and baskets, Oriental rugs, miniatures, illuminated books and glassware will be placed on exhibition.

Brynwood Loan Collection

Administration Building, Third Floor.

A collection of fifty-two valuable paintings owned by Brinton and Chester Woodward including examples of George Innes, Bruce Crane, Charles Davis, Charles Partridge Adams, H. W. Mesdag, Fritz Thorlow and others.

Student Art Exhibit

Administration Building, Third Floor.

An exhibition of work by the students of the art department is shown in the hall. Virdilla

Gaumer, Mary Tudor, Josephine Fulks and Edna Decker are the prize winners in this department for the year just closed. Some of their work will be shown

Kanza Pottery

Administration Building, Third Floor.

Miss Maria L. Benson's Kanza pottery made on the campus will be exhibited in one of the Art Department rooms. Mrs. Thayer, donor of the Thayer Collection, personally arranged Miss Benson's pottery for exhibit. It is well worth seeing.

Classical Museum

The Classical Museum, at the south end of the second floor in Fraser Hall, contains casts of Greek, Roman and Renaissance sculpture, pictures of Greek vases and paintings, reproductions of early Greek metal works of art, Greek and Roman coins and samples of Roman building stones.

Dyche Museum

The Museum of Mammals and Birds is located in Dyche Museum, and consists of forty-five family groups of North American mammals in their natural surroundings in panorama form. This exhibit is the most complete and elaborate of anything of its kind in any college museum in America. The twenty-five hundred mounted birds form a small part of the bird collection. In fact the bulk of all the museum material, including reptiles, fishes, skulls, skeletons, and skins, is not on exhibit, but is available for study and will be shown upon request.

The Paleontological Museum on the third floor of the Museum Building contains one of the finest collections of vertebrate fossils west of the Mississippi, and the best aggregation of Kansas fossils in the world. The fossil fishes from the chalk beds of western Kansas are exceptionally good. A collection of bat-like reptiles, with a wing stretch of twenty feet or more is very complete, and the second finest in the world; while one of the specimens which, when mounted, will be the largest and best exhibit of its kind anywhere, is still in its packing cases, as there is no room available for this forty-foot monster. The collection of mammals is a representative collection from the principal bone beds of the United States supplemented with a very valuable addition from the Santa Cruz beds of Patagonia, South America. In the north room is shown a large case of war implements and utensils of great interest from the Belgian-Congo of South Africa, collected by Claude Brown, a graduate of the department of mining.

The best Indian collection in this state from one individual village is the U. S. G. HOVEY Collection from Wyandotte County, Kansas, which is on exhibition on the top floor of Dyche Museum. Part of the ten thousand specimens in this collection are shown in two display cases.

Prof. H. T. Martin, through whose efforts this collection was secured, will be in the museum on the top floor of Dyche Sunday afternoon and Monday forenoon and afternoon to explain these exhibits.

Geology Museums

The University collection of invertebrate fossils, comprising more than 50,000 specimens, is in the Geology Building, Haworth Hall. An excellent representative series of these, including material from all over the world in addition to the specimens from Kansas, is on display in the Invertebrate Paleontology Museum. A very complete collection of minerals and rocks is also exhibited in Haworth Hall Museum.

Mining Museum and Laboratory

The Mining Museum containing mine models, drills and safety lamps, is also in Haworth Hall, as are the ore dressing and clay laboratories. The ore dressing laboratory contains coal washing machinery, a small stamp mill, and ore concentration machinery from which one can gain some idea of the operations performed in the mills of the new Kansas-Oklahoma zinc and lead fields.

The State Geological Survey of Kansas

The offices of the State Geological Survey are also located in Haworth Hall. The Survey is actively engaged in investigations of the natural resources of the state, especially in oil and gas, lead and zinc, coal, clays, salt, gypsum and road materials. Because of the great demand for geologic work, provision has been made for a much larger program for the Survey.

Commencement 1919

The boys are on the Hill again and now they're here to stay,
The thirty-fifth and eighty-ninth are back at school today;
And Peace is in the world again and all our dreams come true,
And best of all, it's June again, Commencement at K. U.

The barracks have been salvaged and the khaki put away,
And S. A. T. C. fellows wear civillian clothes today;
And Funston men are home again and those from Sill are, too,
And all are back to see us for Commencement at K. U.

The grads of other years are here to praise the good old days,
And things are slipping back again to quite their normal ways.
We'll give the Rock Chalk over and sing "Crimson and the Blue,"
For Peace come back to Kansas and Commencement to K. U.

DOROTHY ALLEN BROWN.

“Beyond the Purple Hills”

Our world was bounded by the purple hills,
We laughed and danced, and in our careless way
We faced our petty problems, fancied ills,
And called it life—but it was only play.

The world beyond we heeded not, nor knew
Its earnestness, its pain, its bitter fight;
For us, care fled before soft winds that blew
Through perfumed lilacs on an April night.

Then suddenly, our painted world was crushed,
Shattered by the ruthless blow of war
And we, facing reality, stood hushed,
At last knew life and saw things as they are.

No more we lose ourselves in dreams when blow
The April winds—we've felt the blast that chills;
But stronger, keener for the fight we go
To meet the world beyond the purple hills.

MARGARET MITCHELL.

General Information

Tickets for the Commencement Exercises

Graduating Students. Each graduating student is entitled to two tickets to the Commencement exercises. These will be given out Friday, June 13, and Saturday, June 14, at the Registrar's office.

Alumni. Alumni may obtain tickets for themselves and friends, to the Commencement exercises upon registration at the Alumni headquarters in Room 110, Fraser Hall, on Monday, June 16. These tickets will secure admission to the first floor of the auditorium, where seats will be reserved until 9:45 o'clock Tuesday morning. Children under twelve years of age will not be admitted to the main auditorium.

Faculty. Faculty members are entitled to one ticket each to the Commencement exercises. They may obtain their tickets at the Registrar's office, Friday, June 13, or Saturday, June 14.

Former Students. Former students who are not graduates may obtain tickets to the Commencement exercises upon application at Alumni headquarters, if tickets are still available.

Others than those mentioned above will be admitted to the Commencement exercises as long as any unreserved seats remain.

Tickets for the University Dinner

Graduating Students. Each graduating student is entitled to one ticket to the University dinner. These tickets are not transferable, and may be obtained upon application at the Registrar's office on Friday, June 13, or Saturday, June 14.

Alumni. Each alumnus who applies in person at Alumni headquarters is entitled to one ticket to the University dinner. These tickets are not transferable.

Faculty. Each member of the Faculty is entitled to one ticket to the University dinner. These tickets may be obtained by personal application at the Registrar's office, Friday, June 13, or Saturday, June 14.

Graduating students, alumni, and faculty members may wish to obtain tickets to the University dinner for guests. Such extra tickets—if any remain—may be obtained at the Registrar's office Tuesday morning, June 17. There is no waiting list.

Since it is necessary to meet, so far as possible, this demand for guest tickets to the dinner, all tickets set aside for graduating students and the faculty which are not called for before 5 p. m., Saturday, June 14, will be turned over to the Registrar for sale.

Any tickets not previously disposed of will be on sale in the Gymnasium immediately after the graduation exercises.

Information Bureau

There will be an information and headquarters booth downtown, at the corner of Eighth and Massachusetts Streets. Telephone connection will be maintained with the University at all hours.
