

Section 3: Source

Source in the SCOR Model is anything that involves the procurement, sourcing and for our discussions will include quality. While quality cuts across all of the SCOR functions and could very easily be part of the discussions related to planning, we will place it here with Source as it is critical to source quality products and components.