

The KANSAS JOURNAL OF SOCIOLOGY endeavors to further scholarly inquiry into social phenomena. The journal welcomes research reports, theoretical contributions, essays on issues of present concern to the discipline, and suggestions for improving current theory and methodology.

Manuscripts submitted should be double-spaced, less than thirty pages, footnotes and references appended, and accompanied by an abstract. If published, the author receives ten free reprints.

Subscriptions are available on a yearly-volume basis. The current volume is Vol. III, beginning with Spring, 1967. Past volumes are available at $4.00 per volume, and also by issue at $1.00 per issue.

When subscribing, please specify volume desired.
