BEST building set to open at Edwards

March 2 will mark the grand opening of the Business Engineering Science and Technology (BEST) Building on KU's Edwards Campus in Overland Park. The BEST Building came to fruition through the Johnson County Education and Research Triangle.

Full Story

TODAY'S HEADLINES

Snyder Book Collection Contest

KU Libraries will hold a celebration recognizing winners of the Snyder Book Collection Contest. The event will be Thursday, April 19, in Watson Library, level 3 west. It will include a presentation by James Gunn, professor emeritus of English at KU and a noted science fiction author.

Full Story

Lecture: 'Religion for Atheists'

Acclaimed writer and philosopher Alain de Botton will speak at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 14, in Woodruff Auditorium in the Kansas Union. His lecture, "Religion for Atheists," is part of the Hall Center for the Humanities' 2011-12 Humanities Lecture Series.

Full Story

TODAY'S EVENTS

PUBLIC EVENT

Rock Chalk Revue
Thursday, March 1, 2012
7 p.m.
Lied Center

View all events

TWITTER

@KULibraries Jane Austen too mainstream for you? Learn about Brit novelists Jane & Anna Maria Porter at Spencer Library, 3pm today http://lib.ku.edu/events

View all tweets

FEATURED MULTIMEDIA

KU ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Post-Border Showdown word cloud

More: photos | videos

KU IN THE NEWS

Nature (Feb. 29, 2012)
Super-sized fleas adapted to feed