KU to host forum at biodiesel conference

KU's Biodiesel Initiative – a team of faculty and students that transforms used cooking oil into biodiesel fuel – will host a forum at the National Biodiesel Conference on Feb. 5. “This is a great opportunity to showcase the research KU is doing to address the world’s energy needs, and it’s exciting to be recognized as a model for other universities to emulate,” said Susan Williams, KU Biodiesel Initiative team co-director.

Full Story

Phase I trials for cancer patients

Dr. Raymond Perez, medical director of the University of Kansas Clinical Research Center and the Lieberman Family Endowed Professor in Cancer Research, explains what kinds of Phase I clinical trials KU will conduct.

Full Story

KU policy on child abuse reporting

Chancellor Bernadette Gray-Little has approved a new university-wide policy for employees of KU and affiliates on reporting to law enforcement suspected sexual abuse of youth under 18.

Full Story

Clothing Closet extends hours

To help students prepare for the University Career Fair on Wednesday, Feb. 8, the Professional Clothing Closet has extended its hours tonight and Monday, Feb. 6.

Full Story
Alderson Auditorium renovated
A ceremonial ribbon-cutting and door-opening took place Feb. 1 to inaugurate the newly renovated Alderson Auditorium at the Kansas Union.

Full Story

January employees of the month
The January 2012 employees of the month include a staffer who identified more than 8,000 address units in Douglas County alone that the last Census count had missed.

Full Story