WHO'S WHO IN THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS LIBRARIES
SPRING 1982
INTRODUCTION

Here is your chance to find out about the people with whom you work!!
The talents, interests, and backgrounds in the 85 sketches that follow are diverse and quite interesting. Survey the many schools attended, discover our "carpenter", identify the backyard farming corps, and behold our wealth of musical talent. We have a piano degree holder and a number of players of that instrument, several who have studied and play the organ including a student of the Julliard School, many keen ears, and an oboe player known as 'bj'. We know who specializes in cigars.

The information provided has been compiled as it was received from each staff member. No editing was done. In a few cases, the compiler "assisted" in the gathering of data for sketches. These cases--special circumstances-- are noted.

Finally, if your sketch does not appear in the main alphabetical sequence, check the addendum. Typing, white-out, and spelling errors are the responsibility of the compiler. And a hearty "thank y'all" is offered to all who contributed.

So...read, discover, and most of all -- ENJOY!!

Various positions and department within the Libraries since 1970, in Special Collections since 1975 with opportunities to work with great people (staff & public) and with rare books and manuscripts—great combination! Interests or musical. At present have trapped a harpsichord in the Spencer Library lounge—all comers to play or accompany welcome!

BAUER, LOIS -- Clerk III -- Serials.
Divides days between bookkeeping and claims. Qualifications acquired from six years work as a bank teller and lifetime fascination with puzzles.
Realizing that chronic procrastination has done its job on adolescent aspirations, has learned to achieve new, though lower, heights by dancing only off stage, singing only in the shower, writing only letters, and racing only the clock.

BENNETT, JODY -- Clerk-Typist II -- Special Collections.
Transferred to KU from Garden City Community College in 1978; received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Speech and Drama in 1981. Joined Special Collections in February 1980 as a student assistant. Promoted to Clerk-Typist II in June

"Garfield" ephemera.
BLOSSER, GAELE GILLESPIE -- Assistant Serials Librarian (L I) -- Serials.
Native New Mexican with background in Spanish, English Lit., Serials, Microforms, Gov't. Docs., Bibliographic Instruction, and Reference. An ability to switch gears quickly and balance several diverse situations simultaneously finds me gleefully plunged into schizophrenic Serials, where I'm responsible for coordination of Receiving, Ordering, and Claiming functions (includes brow-beating vendors on a weekly basis.) Other diversions include Mexican cuisine, white water rafting, a fascination with Dracula, Jim Morrison's body, Victorian Lit., Pre-Raphaelite Art, physiology, nutrition, movies, books, music, and dance.
Have a tendency to swig tequilla at knee level, drink Margaritas with fellow TGIFers, dance all night, and generally run amuck on the tennis court.

BROW, ELLEN -- Bibliographer for Spain, Portugal & Latin America (SPLAT) -- L III
Dept. for Spain, Portugal & Latin America (SPLAT).
Has struggled to "control" the bibliographic production of some 40 political entities since May 1, 1975 at KU. Prior to that at New Mexico for 5 years.
Known to disappear from time to time on book buying trips to places like the Falkland Islands or El Salvador or Chile. Usually returns looking pale and slightly skinnier, leading observers to suspect that most of the time away is spent in the basement of the CIA headquarters in Washington. Has been finishing a dissertation on 20th C. Portugal since the beginning of the 20th C.
Plans to finish by the end of the 20th C. Especially fond of lilacs and green chile.

BURICH, NANCY -- Regents Center Librarian (L II) -- KU Regents Center.
The Regents Center is the location for the University's extension programs in the Kansas City area. It is located at 99th and Mission Road. Nancy has been Regents Center Librarian since 1975. When you hear, see, or say "Linwood", think of Nancy.

CHITTENDEN, CAROL -- Librarian II -- Reference. cataloger, Special Collections, 1968-1972; Reference Dept. ever since.
Besides interest in daffodils, biochemists, prisons & scientific illustration, deeply committed to showing public that rewards of library use outweigh hassles. Rededication ceremonies seem as a vehicle for that commitment.

CLARK, MARILYN -- Librarian III -- Reference.
Background: music, fine arts, medieval history (Spanish). Like to study languages, therefore read French, Spanish, Latin, German, Czech. Use to do interlibrary loans and enjoy complicated bibliographic puzzles. Former

I worked at Tabor College and Washburn University before coming to KU's History of Economics Cataloging Project in 1979, and have been with BCR since September 1981. My interests are scattered, but I confess I would rather watch Gorman Thomas than listen to Gorman, Michael.

*Neither Joe nor Sue Hewitt were able to compile their contributions prior to departing overseas. But their cats have been well fed, their mail taken in the house, and their "lives" provided for you in print.

^The Dean of Libraries gave this compiler "a chance" to write this sketch. When a quick look at job listings showed nothing of promise, the latter figured that he had better tell the 'truth.'
