DEFINITION OF KEY TERMS USED IN TABLES

TABLE 1

- 1. Holdings refers to all library materials received and accessioned by June 30, 1975.
- 2. Library refers to East Asian collections either centrally or separately located and administered.
- 3. Year started refers to the earliest date known for formal organization or systematic collecting of East Asian materials in the library.
- 4. Language refers to total holdings of materials in vernacular languages only. Other includes Hsi-hsia, Moso, etc. but not those in South or Southeast Asian languages. Western language materials on East Asia are not included.
- 5. Volume refers to unit of books cataloged or to be cataloged, including bound periodicals. Each unit in modern binding or each fascicle (ts'e, satsu) in traditional format is counted as one volume.
- 6. Total refers to total units in volumes, reels, sheets, and pieces, excluding pamphlets and separate issues of periodicals and newspapers.
- 7. Microform refers to microfilm by reels, microfiche by sheets, and others (microprint or micro-opaque) by pieces.
- 8. Current periodicals refers to publications issued at regular intervals and received during the current academic year, including annuals and dailies, but excluding serials or series published at irregular intervals.

- 1.  $\underline{\text{No. of collections}}$  refers to the number of reporting libraries included in the surveys.
- 2. No. of volumes refers to total holdings in vernacular languages, including monographs and microforms. Other refers to Manchu, Mongol, Tibetan, Moso, Hsi-hsia, and materials in other East Asian languages.
- 3. Total additions refers to the five-year additions of Chinese, Japanese, Korean, and materials in other East Asian languages.
- 4. Per cent increase refers to new additions in number of volumes in five-year period over those of the previous five-year period.

TABLE 3

- 1. Regions refers to geographical divisions in the United States only.
- 2. Number of collections excludes collections with holdings of less than 1,000 volumes.

TABLE 4

1. Materials refers to expenditures for all library materials in all languages, including books, current periodicals and newspapers, and binding cost.

2. Salaries refers to all wages for personnel handling the East Asian materials, including renumerations for student assistants and fringe benefits to professional and non-professional staff members.

3. Other refers to such items as equipment and supplies, postage and telephone, travel and other expenses.

4. Own institution refers to funds allocated to the East Asian field from the institution's own resources.

5. Government refers to NDEA, NEH, or other federal funds.

6. Foundation refers to funds from such granting agencies as EXPO, FORD, JAPAN FOUNDATION, MELLON, etc.

7. Other refers to such sources as endowment, personal gifts, etc.

TABLE 5

1. Holdings refers to the total number of volumes held by the library as of June 30, 1975.

2. Additions refers to acquisitions in total number of volumes/units during the periods indicated.

3. Books cataloged refers to all materials under complete bibliographic control. Ts'ung-shu or sosho, if cataloged as one individual unit, is counted as one title; if cataloged as separate units, the titles are counted separately. Analytic titles are counted as separate titles cataloged, but not in number of volumes.

4. LC cards used refers to percentage by which Library of Congress catalog cards were adopted.

5. Uncataloged books refers to monographs and microforms received but not cataloged as of June 30, 1975.

TABLE 6

- 1. Personnel refers to the number of staff members in full-time equivalent by functional procedures and by languages. If one cataloger works 20 hrs/wk for Chinese, 10 hrs/wk for Japanese and 10 hrs/wk for Korean, his/her time would be 0.5, 0.25 and 0.25 for Chinese, Japanese, and Korean respectively. One bibliographer may spend 25 hrs/wk in selection, 10 hrs/wk in cataloging, and 5 hrs/wk in reference, his/her time would be 0.62 for acquisitions, 0.25 for cataloging, and 0.13 for services.
- 2. Holdings refers to the total number of volumes held by the library as of June 30, 1975.
- 3. Acquisitions refers to selection, searching, ordering, accessioning, etc.

4. Cataloging refers to descriptive and subject cataloging, card preparation, processing, labeling, filing, and catalog maintenance.

5. Services refers to circulation, inter-library loans, reference, and such general services as management, plant operation and secretarial work.

- 6. Total refers to staff positions in terms of full-time equivalent (FTE).

  Professional staff refers to staff in full-time or part-time positions on professional appointment. Non-professional staff refers to all clerical and hourly staff and student assistants.
- 7.  $\frac{\text{Vacancies}}{\text{vacancies}}$  refers to new professional members recruited in 1974/75 and vacancies open in 1975/76.

TABLE 7

- 1. Cost of materials refers to the unit cost per volume as computed from the expenditures for materials and the total additions for each language.
- 2. Acquisitions per person refers to the average number of titles and volumes handled by one professional or non-professional acquisitions staff member per year.
- 3. Acquisitions cost refers to the unit cost per title or volume handled by one acquisitions staff member as computed against his/her average annual salary.
- 4. Cataloging per person refers to the average number of titles or volumes handled by one cataloger per year.
- 5. Cataloging cost refers to the unit cost per title or volume handled by one professional or non-professional cataloger as computed against his/her average annual salary.
- 6. Total processing cost refers to the combined cost of acquisitions and cataloging per title or volume.

TABLES 8-10

- 1. Holdings includes both monographic volumes and microforms, the total of which should be added together.
- 2. Titles refers to the total number of titles of both monographic volumes and microforms.

TABLE 11

- 1. Circulation refers to library materials removed from and returned to the book stacks or reserve shelves through formal registration.
- 2. Inter-library loans refers to number of volumes by actual counting or estimate in parentheses if no separate record was kept.
- 3. Borrowed refers to number of volumes borrowed from other institutions by the reporting library through inter-library loan.
- 4. Lent refers to number of volumes lent to other institutions by the reporting library through inter-library loan.
- 5. Photoduplication refers to number of items requested by users outside of the reporting library.
- 6. Fees refers to the annual charges to outside users for reference or borrowing privilages.

TABLE 12

- 1. Patrons refers to authorized users who have records in the library indicating their use of East Asian materials. Estimated figures are given in parentheses.
- 2. Patrons from own institution refers to campus users of reporting institutions.
- 3. Visitors refers to patrons who are not members of the institution but use the library for reference or research purposes. For public libraries, all patrons are considered visitors. If visitors cannot be identified, they are entered in the total only.
