Researcher: Policies challenge caregivers

KU sociologist Mary K. Zimmerman charges that U.S. health care policies in the past 30 years have challenged and in some cases derailed a large number of family lives. In a talk to the 75th meeting of Midwest Sociological Society, she called for policy makers, educators and the public to recognize that U.S. health and social policies don’t serve to keep work and family in balance.

Full Story

TODAY'S HEADLINES

Crime declines on Lawrence campus
The number of criminal offenses reported on the University of Kansas Lawrence campus declined in 2011, according to information released today by the Public Safety Office.

Full Story

Writing in a multimedia world
Doug Ward, Budig Professor of Writing at the School of Journalism, will present the Budig Writing Lecture at 4 p.m. Monday, April 16, in Alderson Auditorium in the Kansas Union.

Full Story

Innovation in Learning grant
The application deadline is April 23 for the Center for Teaching Excellence 2012 Innovations in Learning Grant. One $10,000 grant is available to help groups of faculty members develop a culture supporting innovative teaching and deep student learning.

Full Story

KUDOS

Students sweep Naftzger auditions
KU School of Music musicians dominated at the 2012 Naftzger Young Artist Auditions, taking home each top prize. The auditions were March 23-24 at Friends University in Wichita.

Full Story

TODAY'S EVENTS

PUBLIC EVENT

World War II Oral Histories: African-American veterans share their stories
Thursday, April 5, 2012
6:30 p.m.-8:30 p.m.
Dole Institute of Politics
West Campus
View all events

TWEET

@KUNHM Today's poem is a limerick. Take a guess: Most spiders will do you no harm But two you should keep from your arm... http://fb.me/1gbqIiqSy

FEATURED MULTIMEDIA

YOUTUBE

George Mitchell Dole lecture
More: photos | videos

CONNECT