University joins KIPP partnership

A national network of open-enrollment, college-preparatory public charter schools, known as the Knowledge is Power Program (KIPP), will partner with KU to increase college completion rates for underserved students from KIPP schools nationwide. Chancellor Bernadette Gray-Little will tour KIPP’s Houston flagship campus, KIPP Academy, today, March 6.

Full Story

TODAY’S HEADLINES

Jewish theatre in Nazi Germany

A KU theatre professor explores the effects of Adolf Hitler’s anti-Semitic policies on Jewish theatre actors in a new book, “The Jewish Kulturbund Theatre Company in Nazi Berlin,” published by the University of Iowa Press.

Full Story

Vote in KPR's Classical Top 60

Kansas Public Radio listeners can have their say about their favorite classical music by voting in KPR’s Classical Top 60. Listeners can choose their five favorite selections from among the 100 all-time greatest pieces of classical music. The top 60 selections will be broadcast in April.

Full Story

CAMPUS NEWS

Retirement luncheon announced

The annual retirement recognition for faculty and unclassified staff will be noon May 23 in the Kansas Union Ballroom. Faculty and unclassified staff who have retired since July 1, 2012, and those who plan to retire before June 30, 2013, will be honored. For more information, contact Debra Bia at 864-4168.

FEATURED MULTIMEDIA

KU ON YOUTUBE

The Big Event

More: photos | videos