

• The University of Kansas
journal OF UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH
Fall 2012 – Spring 2013

The Journal of Undergraduate Research is an annual publication by the Center for Undergraduate Research that features the scholarship of undergraduates at the University of Kansas.

COVER: Paul Thomas sketches the remains of Center Chapel in Franklin County, Kan., as part of an archeological undergraduate research project.

Contents

UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH

- Social capital in the experience of homeless mothers 1
D. Adam Nicholson
- Inhibition of L-type and cyclic nucleotide-gated calcium channels demonstrates synergistic mechanisms for prolonging vascular contractions induced by a mimetic of thromboxane A₂ 14
Joseph W. Kellum
- Remnants of Ritual: A discussion of burial practices and material remains of Pompeian tombs 25
Jennifer Geller
- Herzlian Zionism and the chamber music of the New Jewish School, 1912-1925 30
Erin Fulton
- Displacement, Tension & Kinematic Properties of the Posterior Cruciate Ligament during Flexion-Extension with Applied Loads 38
Jamie Branch
- Plato's Psychological Manifestations of Madness: A Case for a Parallel between Philosophical and Tyrannical Souls in The Republic 43
Christopher Stratman
- Archaeological Survey of Center Chapel, Franklin County, Kansas..... 53
Paul Thomas
- Exile from Exile: The Moroccan Jewish Cultural Exile and Experience Under French Colonial Rule—1912-1960's 59
Joseph Siess
- Effects of paedomorphosis on signaling behaviors in dyadic encounters of the domestic dog 65
Jennifer Aucott
- Alternative Breaks: A Study on Risk Management and Safety Policies 74
Alyssa Ong
- Concerning Hobbits: Tolkien and the Trauma of England's 19th/20th Century Transition 80
Ryan W. Smith

