Public invited to test student Ford designs

For the past few months, students at the Center for Design Research have partnered with Ford Motor Company on a project to eliminate something most people use every day: the automobile gearshift. The Lawrence community will have the opportunity to test the students’ new designs and provide feedback at an event Sunday, April 14.

Full Story

TODAY’S HEADLINES

Student named Truman Scholar

Hannah Sitz, a student from Andover planning a career in the nonprofit sector, has been named a 2013 Harry S. Truman Scholar. Sitz is the 17th KU student since 1981 to be named a Truman Scholar and the only 2013 recipient from the state of Kansas.

Full Story

KU Energy Conference set for April 25

The challenges posed by the changing dynamics in the energy industry will be among the highlights of the third annual KU Energy Conference, set for April 25 at the Oread Hotel. The keynote address will come from Greg Rorrer, former director of sustainability for the National Science Foundation.

Full Story

Discussion: 'Good Blood, Bad Blood'

Michael Wehmeyer, professor of special education, will discuss his new book, "Good Blood, Bad Blood: Science, Nature and the Myth of the Kallikaks," at 4 p.m. today, April 11, at Jayhawk Ink in the Kansas Memorial Union.

Full Story

TODAY’S EVENTS

PUBLIC EVENT

Myth & Mayhem Film Series: 'Twister'

Thursday, April 11, 2013
6:30 p.m.-9 p.m.
Dyche Hall
View all events

TODAY’S EVENTS

CAMPUS NEWS
Authors join Sturgeon Award jury
Elizabeth Bear and Andy Duncan have accepted appointment to the jury for the Theodore Sturgeon Memorial Award for the best short science fiction of the year, offered through KU's Center for the Study of Science Fiction.

Full Story

Kansas Football Spring Game
KU Athletics has planned a full day of events and activities for the annual Kansas Football Spring Game on Saturday, April 13. Kickoff is at 1 p.m., on Kivisto Field at Memorial Stadium. Admission is free.

Full Story

Bridge team advances to nationals
The School of Engineering steel bridge team earned a spot at the national competition with a strong showing at the American Society of Civil Engineers Mid-Continent Conference regional event April 4-6.

Full Story

The New York Times (April 10, 2013)
The power of talking to your baby

KUDOS

Full Story