Study: All teachers need ESL training

The demand for English as a second language teachers is growing across the nation as more bilingual and multilingual students are enrolling in all levels of American schools. A KU professor has published a study arguing that not only can the experiences of bi/multilingual teachers provide insight to effective teaching; they should be required in all teacher preparation programs.

Full Story

TODAY’S HEADLINES

Join the KU Energy Conference

From policies and practices, to consumption and controversy — an upcoming conference at KU will provide a comprehensive overview of energy with the hope of showing the way to a brighter future. The KU Energy Conference is set for 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. April 12 at the Oread Hotel.

Full Story

TODAY’S EVENTS

CONCERT

Imani Winds ‘Informance’ with KU Symphony Orchestra
Thursday, March 15, 2012
3:30 p.m.-5 p.m.
Murphy Hall 118
View all events

TODAY’S EVENTS

Twitter

#kubball @DoleInstitute RT @mashable: Kansas Jayhawks Win Social Media’s March Madness - http://on.mash.to/xPkIaq
View all tweets

CAMPUS NEWS

Retirement recognition luncheon

The annual retirement recognition for KU faculty and unclassified staff will be noon Thursday, May 24, in the Kansas Union Ballroom. Faculty and unclassified staff who have retired since July 1, 2011, and those who plan to retire before June 30, 2012, will be honored at the luncheon. For more information, contact Debra Bia at 864-4168.

Full Story

Confucius Institute film lineup

The Confucius Institute of KU in Overland Park has announced the three films, built around the theme of "Second Chances," that will be shown during the 2012 Kansas City Chinese Film Festival.

Full Story

FEATURED MULTIMEDIA

KU Alumni Association

Baby Jay packs for NCAA Tournament
More: photos | videos

KU in the News

NASA.gov (March 15, 2012)
NASA's IceBridge 2012 Arctic Campaign takes to the skies
Military shooter trial to test patience of Afghans

Art talk with Cynthia Schira