Take a tour of KU's medicinal garden

The public is invited to the annual fall tour of the KU Native Medicinal Plant Research Garden at 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 22. The gardens established by the program, including the medicinal research garden and the School of Pharmacy Medicinal Plant Garden, have had hundreds of visitors since they were installed in 2010 and 2011, respectively.

Full Story

TODAY'S HEADLINES

'Campaign 2012 with Eleanor Clift'

The Dole Institute of Politics at KU will host "Campaign 2012 with Eleanor Clift" as part of the 2012 Muncy Journalism and Politics Lecture Series. The event will take place at 3 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 23, at the Dole Institute.

Full Story

Economist Arthur Laffer to visit KU

The father of supply-side economics and a major contributor to Kansas Gov. Sam Brownback’s new tax policy is coming to Lawrence. Arthur Laffer will present "The Next Act for Policy Makers: A Primer on Economic Reality, Myths and Fallacies" at 5 p.m. Oct. 11 at the Kansas Union.

Full Story

TODAY'S EVENTS

PUBLIC EVENT

Methland: The Death and Life of an American Small Town

Thursday, Sept. 20, 2012
7:30 p.m.-9 p.m.
Dole Institute of Politics
View all events

TWEET

@kunews Help preserve Potter Lake! Volunteers needed this weekend to remove unwelcome vegetation from the water. PDF w details: http://ow.ly/d/NKI
View all tweets

FEATURED MULTIMEDIA
Join an autumnal equinox tour
Learn about the interrelations of the stars and certain remarkable buildings on the KU campus at equinox on a tour that begins at 5 a.m. Friday, Sept. 21, at the intersection of 14th Street and Jayhawk Boulevard. Another tour will be at 10 a.m.

Full Story

Forum planned on 'big data'
This week’s Digital Humanities Forum at KU will explore what “big data” — massive datasets too large to be easily processed by common methods — can mean for the humanities.

Full Story