Researcher: Nature boosts creativity

There's new evidence that our minds thrive away from it all. Research conducted at KU concludes that people from all walks of life show startling cognitive improvement — for instance, a 50 percent boost in creativity — after living for a few days steeped in nature.

Full Story

TODAY'S EVENTS

LECTURE

"The Indignant Generation: A Narrative History of African-American Writers and Critics"
Monday, April 23, 2012
3:30 p.m.-5 p.m.
Hall Center for the Humanities Conference Hall

View all events

TODAY'S HEADLINES

KU to test public address system
KU will broadcast a test of the emergency public address system, including a demonstration of an external speaker array, at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 24.

Full Story

Hall Center receives $790K gift
A $790,000 gift from the Hall Family Foundation will provide $430,000 for renovations to the Hall Center for the Humanities at KU and $360,000 toward meeting a National Endowment for the Humanities matching challenge grant.

Full Story

KU Research Achievement Award
Frank Schoenen, KU associate director of the Specialized Chemistry Center and major contributor to two early-stage drug discovery programs, is the 2012 recipient of KU's Research Achievement Award.

Full Story

Graduate Student Awards announced
More than 25 outstanding graduate students at KU will be recognized at the annual Graduate Student Awards Ceremony at 4 p.m. Tuesday, April 24, in the Kansas Union Ballroom.

Full Story

FEATURED MULTIMEDIA

KU ATHLETICS

See images from the Kansas Relays
More: photos | videos
SpaceUp Kansas set for April 29
Two KU student organizations are helping craft a new style of conference that will delve into a variety of space exploration topics. The SpaceUp Kansas Unconference will be April 29 at the Kansas Cosmosphere and Space Center in Hutchinson.

Full Story