THE GRADUATE MAGAZINE

University of Kansas

Mineral Co.; president, Southwestern Interstate Coal Operators Assn.; vice-president, Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce; member, American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, coal director, coal division, American Mining Congress, he manages to keep busy. His address: 1060 So. Olive, Pittsburg.

1937
Bob Dills, b. and Lucile Gabel Dills, f'a12, now live in Ft. Smith, Ark. Bob is with the Arkansas Sand Gravel Co.

Walter V. Freese, g'29, continues to be a faithful follower of the University. He read the Daily Kansas regularly this year. Student problems and student government are two of his major interests and he always looks forward to the K.U. athletic season. "I am a heart's strong Pachacamac and believe the opposition this year was good for the old part," says Walt. He recently was re-elected superintendent of the city schools at Clyde.

Regina Gottlieb, dietitian in Memorial hospital at Kansas City, talked to the Home Economics Forum April 16 on the possibilities for home ec majors getting work as dietitians. Miss Ruth Campbell, social case worker of this county, also spoke of the opening in social work for trained home economists.

Stanley Lindley, son of Chancellor and Mrs. H. E. Lindley, makes a special recovery following his recent siege with pneumonia, and is able to walk about some. He holds a position as assistant at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn.

J. Clifton Ramsey, f'30, has been elected president of the Lawrence Rotary Club. He and Helen Feller Ramsey, f'31, will go to the International meeting of Rotary at Mexico City in June.

Dr. O. Smith, g. and Irene Ainsworth Smith, f'11, in February announced the adoption of a four-months-old baby girl, to whom they have given the name, Virginia Irene.

1928
Eldon A. Arders, g'31, head of the department of music at Arizona State Teachers' College at Flagstaff, Eastern Arizona, directed the college's 60-voice A Cappella choir in the Grand Canyon Easter sunrise broadcast over WMAM and the entire network of NBC. Mr. Arders formerly lived in Lawrence.

Ken Fitch, f.5, breezy young New York Life man of Wichita, will be heading south for a summer vacation in Los Angeles. Louis, e. and Mary Lee Robbins Fel1, f'a10, were in the alumni office May 9 on vacation from their duties at Ft. Peck, Mont., where Louis, an architectural draftsman, is an inspector of general construction on the great dam being built. Louis had great stories to tell of the mammoth structure which will stem the flow of the Missouri. The dam is 225 feet high and 1 1/2 miles long. The shore line of the impounded lake will be longer than the Atlantic seaboard. Louis hopes to see the Government city of Ft. Peck in which about 1000 persons now live. On the project are about 2000 government men and 5000 civilian employees. Many of each live in Glasgow, Mont., 20 miles away. The city of Ft. Peck is completed and the tunnel used for carrying the river flow around the site of the dam is also done, according to Louis. Other K.U. men mentioned in the conversation as being on the works include: Herb Peterson, f'27, chief engineer of the dredging section, Bob Gebo, f'28, draftsman, Allan Buckley, e'29, of the dredging section, Bob Mandigo, f'34, a surveyor, and Bob Noble, f'33, of the general engineering service. Bob married a Montana girl in September.

Wayde Griestead, f.5, advertising manager for the Phillips Pet. Co., now lives at 26 Seneca in Pittsburg, Kan. With him are several other