OUT OF STORAGE AND INTO THE CLASSROOM: REVEALING THE SPENCER MUSEUM OF ART COLLECTION THROUGH THE KU LIBRARIES INFORMATION GATEWAY Holly Mercer

University of Kansas

SPENCER MUSEUM OF ART

More than 25,000 objects in permanent collection About 500 on display at any given time

Must visit to Museum to view objects

IMLS grant to digitally document the collection

Expertise in digital photography

KU COMMUNITY

Images scattered in repositories across campus

Instructors must locate images for class use

Digital and analog formats

Project Goals: Support a growing KU community developing digital content for research, teaching, and learning

Promote better use of KU resources through shared expertise

Skillset Sumer 2007 Issue

Scholarly Communications and Digital Content Development Workshop Schedule - Electronic Theses and Available Now!

The Skillset Summe issue should be in y chromogenic color print (Ektacolor)

ights Statement: For copyright and reproduction information:

http://www.spencerart.ku.edu/information/rightsandre
This is a project in process - feedback and correction appreciated. Please contact: smadata@ku.edu.

locally created and licensed digital content

LIBRARIES

Medicine

Building an image repository using Luna Insight

Maps & Cartography

INCREASED AVAILABILITY

Open access to Spencer Museum of Art images through KU Libraries Information

Separate "virtual" Spencer Museum collection and also integration with all Art & Cultural Heritage images high quality images from campus partners

INSTRUCTION

Workshops and tutorials developed by Libraries Instructional Services unit

Art History instructors using Spencer Museum of Art images in classes

72,000 images in Art & Cultural Heritage collection 17,200 images in Spencer Museum of Art collection

