TWO CAMPS

Two weeks ago they were delivered to a lawyer's office in a private crate. They were trimmed out like Christmas trees in human contrails. The boxes were stamped with Nazi insignia. The mayor fled as the farmers blew the jails spilled out the boys, and the music stopped everywhere, including the New Music of the Sky which had so recently begun and promised such new hope for the future. Excuse me friends, Ona. Here I was carried away as I sat to write this proxy view of a hideous dream from last night's dream reports. These babies are aging me faster now. Here is a short one from Tennessee, "They acted mysteriously and vaguely gave the impression that they were from another world and had enlightenment to give us. Bill looked like an earthling, but Jerry had wrap-around eyes; the white extended across the side of his face." There is so little I can say to dreams like this, or, "I attended a MUON seminar in Kansas City, June 6, 1973; J Fyson has wraparound eyes hidden behind huge glasses. Others were more disguised—by plastic surgery with rubbery scars, freckles, beards and hair. A short negro sat behind me, carrying a camera; from his direction, I could hear a ultrasonic tone and my head couldn't think clearly. While I tried to explain I had information to forward, they induced a galvanic action in the wrist holding the phone, sort of a wavering involuntary flexing, not spastic, not shaking as with fear. I ran out of coins and the operator cut through New York and down through Lawrence. Fast..."

KUNTE

Wuntex University, founded in a chicken shack on the floodplain of the Kaw in 1908, later moved up the hill on a flat-bed truck and now fully flowering and fruiting there, invites the senior citizen to the clasp of its ivyied embrace.

In the histories of Wuntex, the early years of the red cross girls handing out hot dogs and beer in cups is seen as a school shame. Dr. Wunty, the founder, a wealthy automatic sex manufacturers of Detroit, requested a deletion of these years from the school yearbooks, which left no yearbook at all. He came to the records office one day where the office supervisor informed him that the yearbooks did exist. His heart leapt up. He wanted to be rid of the nasty things, and soon he was asking, demanding, the books be given to him. He had remembered ordering the yearbook staff disbanded then.

Only ten years before that, on the verge of a decade, Wunty found a Crosley station wagon in a vacant lot. He fitted it with automatic gadgets including a hot water shower working off the crankcase and an electric weenie roaster. He drove it across America, spilling his racial ideas. He was written bad checks by university heads.

Wunty's first metal structures were visible to Cheyenne. Suddenly the Students struggled out their houses and into the buses that leapt and bucked like broncs across the plain to the new university. They arrived to the mere frames of dormitories, no roof, no sides, and so many died of the bad weather in semester.

But George Lippert, a Barsum Freak, Lived to Age of 62,

After living for two weeks with one heart dead George Lippert, 62 years old, who had two hearts, three perfectly formed legs, sixteen toes and a double arm, is dead from tuberculosis. He was one of Barsum's wonders.

Surgeons who performed an autopsy declared that if it had not been for the consumption, which already had the upper hand, the death of Lippert's right heart would not have materially affected the like organ on the left side and that he probably would have lived for years.

Lippert may return. Many say in the will that they plan to tour death for a time, then hastily return back, RIP.

BET BY A FEW LUNATICS

Tomorrow is a day of reckoning with the light headed enthusiasts who do not wisely but too well. Those tied up with money obligations, however will have an easy time compared to the ones who yield in a moment of weakness to "freaks." Quite a few old folks will be witnessed, A Wall Street broker is due to roll a peanut kernel from Fulton Street to Chicago street with a toothpick. A check for the American Timple company is honor bound to go to Central Park and stand on one leg for an hour. If interrogated by a policeman, he is to say, "All is lost, save honor." But the saddest fate of all is that which stays another Wall Street broker in the face. It takes a Wall Street man to devise queer forfeits, but this one is fraught with danger. He is to go up to John L. Sullivan's place, poke the ex pug fighter in the ribs and then recite Singay had A Little Lamb once five--if he is allowed. Now Sullivan permits no familiarity, even from his best friends, so that this plan is a good deal like sudden death. Perhaps it will teach some of these rash people a lesson.

The whitecaps are threatening the garbagepenny cabs again. In the latest, Pico Doco, Itinerant farmer, who found suffocated, headfirst, upside down, choked in swill. When discovered, he was still warm. The crew chief was one of his men fainted from the overripe cow molasses color peculiar to the cops--and that was the fear, not the small, that sent his man tumbling to the brick alleyway. The chief said, "I'm going to catch it, Ain't alive. Try to play a fight, it's just about the same." Dora scurried the alleyways regularly, as many a future done in this season of despair. Why not patrol the alleys at old hours with a machine gun and killer shepherds and wipe all but the aged whites caps out? We say kill kill kill kill kill them. The mayor has tried to establish contact but the caps are silent as snow. Tell us the solution, Son 90.

From the prairie schooner past, the modern trailer coach is a vast step forward. Roger W. Babion, stable statistics: "Within 30 years, more than half the population of the United States will be traveling in automobile trailers!" In some of the larger trailer colonies of the south and Pacific coast may be found a thousand trailers, averaging 5 persons per unit; they stay for a week or two, then hit the road. For free.

Ole,

On the fourth day of Christmas, my true love gave to me... A true hearted love story is that of Tuscaloosa, vice-consul of the Ministry of Exobiology. He was seated in a chair, near a fire, when the young man approached. Tusca, said Tusca, "we don't have any idea how that came about. ICCH (the Interplanetary Conference on Humanoid Research) had a meeting, and Tusca to the investigation, which project now proceeds under the acronym WHATIF."

We are aware that only a limited amount of nucleotide and macromolecular structures are available for investigation. We know ICCH didn't make the synthsform he is entirely responsible for. The conference was briefly interrupted by the intruder. By means of gurgling shrieks through his bloody hole, Tusca refused to speculate on the outcome of the affair, which seemed considerably higher than what it proportionately--absolutely or relatively--should be. Tusca is the humanoid of Skeletal Biota (MEB) and director of the Bureau of Overlord Biochemistry and Effectiveness Research (Energy, and besides, the EATER (Energy and Technology Effectiveness Research) Agency had placed a ban on the study of overlaps between species available for specific purposes, and all resources had been confiscated and compacted.

Tusca is the humanoid of Skeletal Biota (MEB) and director of the Bureau of Overlord Biochemistry and Effectiveness Research (Energy, and besides, the EATER (Energy and Technology Effectiveness Research) Agency had placed a ban on the study of overlaps between species available for specific purposes, and all resources had been confiscated and compacted.

Alex Thomas, vice-consul of the Ministry of Exobiology, said Tusca, "we don't have any idea how that came about. ICCH (the Interplanetary Conference on Humanoid Research) had a meeting, and Tusca to the investigation, which project now proceeds under the acronym WHATIF."

We are aware that only a limited amount of nucleotide and macromolecular structures are available for investigation. We know ICCH didn't make the synthsform he is entirely responsible for. The conference was briefly interrupted by the intruder. By means of gurgling shrieks through his bloody hole, Tusca refused to speculate on the outcome of the affair, which seemed considerably higher than what it proportionately--absolutely or relatively--should be.
