Figure 4.4. Sequence stratigraphic cross-section B-B’ is a cross-section oriented southwest to northeast across the study area. This cross-section is based on core data and well-log interpretation. Included in this figure are the Cherokee Group lithofacies, interpreted sequence stratigraphic surfaces, and interpreted systems tracts. Index map shows location of wells in cross-section. Datum is the maximum flooding surface at the