Editorial Advisory Board

Sandra L. Albrecht University of Kansas
Kevin Anderson Northern Illinois University
Robert J. Antonio University of Kansas
William R. Arnold University of Kansas
Roslyn Wallach Bologh CUNY Graduate School
Kang Chao Tunghai University, Taiwan
Göran Dahl Lund University, Sweden
Brian L. Donovan University of Kansas
David Ekerdt University of Kansas
Mark Gottdiener SUNY at Buffalo
Eric A. Hanley University of Kansas
Shirley Harkess University of Kansas
Carl-Göran Heidegren Lund University, Sweden
Horst Helle Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität, Germany
Shirley A. Hill University of Kansas
Stephen Kalberg Boston University
Manjur Karim Culver-Stockton College
Lewis A. Mennerick University of Kansas
Rhonda J.V. Montgomery University of Kansas
Joane Nagel University of Kansas
Mehrangiz Najafizadeh University of Kansas
Harold L. Orbach Kansas State University
Murray E. G. Smith Brock University, Ontario
David N. Smith University of Kansas
Joey Sprague University of Kansas
William G. Staples University of Kansas
Jacob Als Thomsen Roskilde University, Denmark
Carol A. B. Warren University of Kansas
Jack M. Weller University of Kansas
Norman R. Yetman University of Kansas
Mary K. Zimmerman University of Kansas
ISSN: 1094-5830

Social Thought & Research (STAR) is published annually. You may contact the journal at:

Editors
Social Thought & Research
Department of Sociology
The University of Kansas
Fraser Hall
1415 Jayhawk Blvd, Room 709
Lawrence, KS 66045-7556

Email: starjournal@ku.edu
Website: http://web.ku.edu/~starjrnl

Subscription Rates for 2009-2010:
Individuals: $30
Institutions: $50
Subscriptions for addresses outside of U.S.A. add $10 for postage.
All payments should be made to Social Thought & Research.
Back issues of STAR are available for $30 each.

Manuscript Submissions:
Format: format is not an initial editorial concern although STAR does advise authors to keep footnotes to a minimum and requests that any identifying information only be included on the cover page; if a paper is considered for revision and resubmission STAR will advise authors regarding format.

Fees: $10 must accompany all manuscript submissions, although this fee is waived for papers authored solely by graduate students; submit one (1) copy of the manuscript plus one (1) electronic copy on floppy or CD. In the cover letter provide important contact information including a current email address to receive confirmation of receipt of manuscript.

Inquiries: inquiries from contributors or concerning business matters, subscriptions, change of address, advertising rates, and claims should be directed to the above address.
TABLE OF CONTENTS
Vol. 30, 2009

On the Cover
Bruce Carruthers, University of Kansas

Acknowledgments

INVITED 2008 CARROLL D. CLARK LECTURER
AT THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

Interview with Bruce Westen
Prepared by Ada Van Roekel-Hughes .................. 3

Interview with Robert Jensen
Prepared by Pooya Naderi and Christy Craig .......... 11

FEATURED ARTICLES AND INTERVIEWS

Sarah Wittig Galgano, Carnegie Mellon University
Barriers to Reintegration: An Audit Study of the Impact of Race and Offender Status on Employment
Opportunities for Women ............................................. 21

Robert Hughes, University of Kansas
Equal Opportunity, Market Preference and Voter Turnout:
An Analysis of the 1996, 32000, and 2004 U.S
Presidential Elections ................................................ 39

Ray Sin, University of Kansas
Emotionally Contentious Social Movements:
A Tri-Variate Framework .......................................... 87
BOOK REVIEW

Ray Sin, University of Kansas
Queering the Political Economy of Migration: Identities, Space and Borders
The artwork for Volume 30 of Social Thought and Research is Police Court by Albert Bloch. Bloch was an artist, illustrator, political cartoonist, social critic, essayist, and poet. He was born in St. Louis on December 2, 1882 of parents who emigrated from Bohemia to the United States. Relatively little is known of Bloch’s formative years since he declined to write about his background or art. He began his early career in New York and St. Louis as a caricaturist and political cartoonist, settling eventually in St. Louis and working for the literary magazine the Mirror. The editor of the Mirror sponsored an extended stay for Bloch in Europe beginning in 1909 in the apparent hope he would pursue formal training. Bloch eschewed this training, but was greatly influenced by German modernism. He developed an abstract and experimental style that was not well received in the America.

Bloch returned to the United States in 1919, and became head of the department of Drawing and Painting at the University of Kansas in 1923, a position he retrained until a heart attack forced him to retire in 1947. Block died in Lawrence on December 9, 1961. Although there is scant information on his work, Police Court is dated 1910 and must have been drawn during the early part of Bloch’s stay in Europe. Many of his works during this period reflected social criticism, and one can speculate that Police Court was critical look the justice system. It meshes nicely with the theme of this volume: conflict and inequality. It is a pleasure to feature the work of an artist so closely associated with the University of Kansas, the home of this publication.

—Bruce C. Carruthers

Permission to reprint Police Court was granted by the Spencer Museum of Art, Gift of Albert Bloch, 1939.0018

Acknowledgments

The editors at Social Thought and Research would like to thank the following people for their help in the production of volume 30: Gwen Claassen, of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences Digital Media Services, for her help in formatting, and Aubrey Brandt, of Rights and Reproduction in Spencer Museum of Art, for her assistance in selecting our cover image. We would also like to thank our staff for their work in interviewing, transcribing, and reviewing and the faculty in the sociology department who have provided assistance and support during our endeavors. Finally, thank you to our contributors for all their hard work that has come to fill our pages.

—Bruce Carruthers, Rachel Craft, Brittany Morin-Mezzadri, Ada Van Roekel-Hughes