

FALL CONFERENCE — REGISTER TODAY!

AMERICAN INDIAN LEADERS

RED POWER & TRIBAL POLITICS

SEPTEMBER 15–16

The University of Kansas
Lawrence, Kansas

This conference will bring together academic scholars and others interested in the history of American Indian activism in the 1960s. A varied cross section of tribal elders and leaders will discuss the social, cultural, and economic changes and challenges that Native Americans have faced in the decades since the 1960s.

Invited Speakers

Dennis Banks, Clyde Bellecourt, Ramona Bennett, Ada Deer,
Vine Deloria Jr., LaDonna Harris, Oren Lyons, John Trudell

Topics

Native Politics Today
Tribal Politics in the 1960s
Preserving Native Stories
Tribal Sovereignty & Leadership
Preserving Language & Culture
Ethics for Indigenous Studies
Indian Activism
Gaming

Presented by

The University of Kansas
Haskell Indian Nations University

An EO/AA provider.

REGISTER NOW!

Participation is restricted to 250 attendees.

Toll free: 877/404-KUCE

Fax: 785/864-4871

E-mail: kuce@ukans.edu

Web: www.kuce.org

Mail:

The University of Kansas
Continuing Education
1515 St. Andrews Drive
Lawrence, KS 66047