Texture should be added with plaster of paris before painting.

Paint should be a base coat of gray then spattered with the following:
dark gray, light blue, green, and brown, in order.

Lines in between bricks should be shadowed with dark gray.