

CENTRAL ASIAN LAW AN HISTORICAL OVERVIEW

A Conference Funded by the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation of Germany and the Institute for International Asian Studies, the Netherlands in Honor of Professor Herbert Franke

When: October 13-17, 2003

Where: Leiden, the Netherlands

The conference will explore the various systems of law that have appeared in Central Asia since earliest times and the changes that are presently underway in the countries of that area to meet the needs of modern society. Scholars from France, Germany, Japan, the Netherlands, Poland, Russia, the United States, and Uzbekistan will give papers on these topics that will reflect a variety of disciplines.

The conference is open to all interested persons and the public is cordially invited to attend and comment on the papers.
