The Geography of Caesar’s Campaigns, Maps

by William Glenn Magaw

May 14th, 1898

Submitted to the Department of Latin and Greek of the University of Kansas in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the Degree of Master of Arts
Master Thesis
Latin
Magaw, W.G. 1898
Geography of Caesar's campaigns.
Maps.
The Geography of Caesar's Campaigns, Gaul, Map II.

Oceanus Britannicus

Belgica

Conquered Territory at Close of Summer of 57 B.C.
The Geography of Caesar's Campaigns.

Paul, Map III.

Spring 56 B.C.
The Geography of Caesar's Campaigns.
Gaul, Map IV.

 Territory Subdued at Close of Third Summer's Campaign, 56 B.C.
Map II

Result of Second Invasion of Britain, Summer, 54 B.C.

Winter Quarters
Winter, 54-53 B.C.

A. Sez
A. Amiens
"Monteaux"
St. Pol
Charlevi
Zugra
Labellus

Rosina
Tectaurus
"Cassia"
"Tungri"
"Sabinus and Celta"
Map III.

Insurrection of Ambiorix.

Tribes in revolt in red.

“Sympathy in blue.”
Map VIII.
The Revolt of the Treveri.
Tribes in armis in red.
"affected but not in open revolt in blue."
Map II.
Rebellion under Leadership of Treveri.
Early Spring, 53 B.C., and
Summer, 53 B.C.

Locations:
- Menapii
- Treveri
- Remi
- Carnutes
- Belluvii, Suessiones
- Eburones
- Carrii
- Aedui
- Narbo Martius
- Avarii
- Allobroges
Map X
A General Uprising. Venicetorix
Winter 53-52 B.C.
Map XI.
A General Uprising, Vercingetrix.
Summer, 52 B.C.
Map XII.
Final Submission of Gaul.
51 B.C.