

then

service jobs dominate working outside of home not common til the beginning of WWII

jobs highly segregated based on sex reflect let's

although most obstacles have been overcome, there are still definite gender differences in the workplace.

change starts with YOU.

wage gap still exists

jobs are less sexually segregated education, careers, and marriages all pursued now