Executive Summary

Farnsworth Elementary was finally able to install the flat screen TV purchased with grant funds, and they began displaying all the digital signs Stacy Vincent made for them. Stacy also continued to make 5 more signs each month to promote NN/LM resources, principles of health literacy, and library services in general. Finally, Stacy attended a STEM night at Farnsworth Elementary. Stacy had a Jeopardy style game that included questions and activities about NN/LM resources and health information literacy, as well as a table display and STEM activity about the different parts of blood.

This period went very smoothly. Stacy did have a little trouble finding appropriate and copyright compliant images to use in my digital signs. Dana Abbey was able to point her toward some resources, and Stacy also contacted KidsHealth.org for permission to use some of their images.
