

“Unlocking the Power of Electronic Health Information for Public Health Workers in Kansas”
(Date and Conference Name – was inserted here)

PLEASE RETURN THIS EVALUATION AS YOU LEAVE.
YOU WILL RECEIVE A PACKET WITH AN INSTRUCTIONAL CD AND OTHER ITEMS.

The purpose of the National Network of Libraries of Medicine grant is to ensure that health professionals, their patients and the general public are connected to health information resources they need to make informed health care decisions.

1. Prior to this presentation about MEDLINEplus, a consumer oriented health information database, were you aware of this resource?

yes no

If yes, have you used it? yes no

2. Is MEDLINEplus a resource you will use in working with your colleagues and/or people you serve? yes no

3. Would you refer family and friends who have health information questions to MEDLINEplus? yes no

4. Prior to this presentation about PubMed, a database for health professionals, were you aware of this resource and other related databases such as TOXNET or Clinical Trials?

yes no

If yes, have you used them? yes no

5. Based on the information presented today, how likely are you to access our website for electronic health information for public health workers in Kansas at www.kspublichealth.org? likely maybe not likely comment? _____

6. It is our intent to continually update the website for Kansas public health workers. In order to serve a wide range of users, please describe the particular area of public health you are associated with—examples: nurse, sanitarian, local health department, veterinarian, academic, research, etc.: _____

THANK YOU FOR TAKING YOUR TIME TO COMPLETE THIS EVALUATION ABOUT THE PROGRAM.

Teresa Coady, MLS and Gayle Willard, MLS.