

SAVE THE DATE

- Join your colleagues in Wyoming for a special one-day symposium on community health information outreach!
- The “Regional Community Health Information Outreach Symposium,” presented through an RML subcontract with the University of Wyoming Libraries, will be held October 11, 2005 in Jackson Hole, Wyoming prior to the MPLA/WYLA Conference
- Early October is a great time to visit Jackson Hole, and in order to take full advantage of the attractive location, symposium events will be held at the spectacular National Museum of Wildlife Art (<http://wildlifeart.org/>)
